Commissioner Abernathy:

Dear Mr. Powell and Commissioners,

Please stop violence on TV. Although we have strict family rules on what may be watched, I am concerned for all the children whose parents do not recognize the dangers of allowing children to watch violence on TV. Please take this opportunity to exert a positive influence on today's vulnerable children. Thank you for your concern and action.

Sincerely,

Sue Lyzenga

Violence begets violence and if we want to have a society of non-violence we must be careful to feed our young people with non-violent entertainment. If they see violence and hear violence they will think violence and become desensitized to it. Then actions follow. It's been proven over and over again. Let's wake up!

Dear Mr. Powell and Commissioners,

Thank you for all you have been doing to curb programs displaying violence on TV.

My husband and I would urge you to be even more judicious and further protect the children from the obscene and violent content...even in cartoons! So many studies have been done on the visual impact on the mind/ parents know to carefully monitor; however, we need more of a wholesome selection to replace the garbage. So continue to clean up the programing.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Muriel J. Tkach, RN
